

Reservation Tips for Wilderness Permits in Inyo National Forest

Log onto the website: www.recreation.gov

In the search window, search for “Inyo National Forest- Wilderness Permits”

for "INYO NATIONAL FOREST - WILDERNESS PERMITS"

Next, click on “Check Availability” to move to the page with our list of trails.

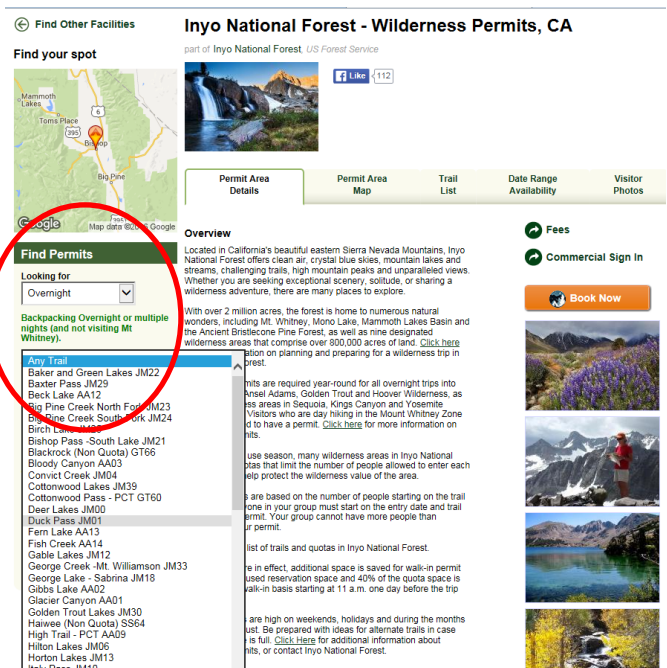

On the left side, under Find Permits,

Select the permit type “Overnight” for most trips.
(a definition of permit type appears under the box)

Select your entry trail, entry date, and group size to search for available permits.

You will need to Log-In or Sign Up.

Hint: your user name is your email address

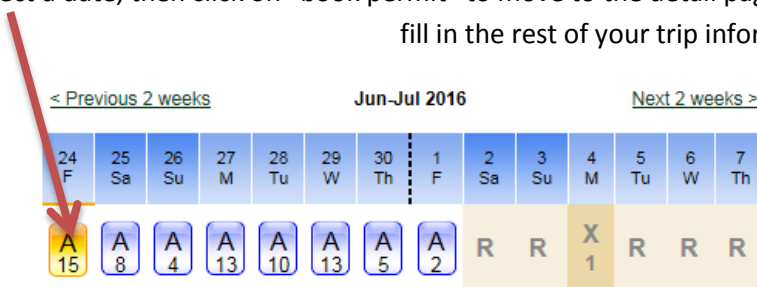

Click on:

See Details or the trail name to move to the next page. Click on photo for a map identifying the trail

A calendar shows what dates are available for a 2 week period.

- R means the date is fully reserved.
- X is not enough space for your group size or not within the 6 month reservation window.
- A is available (the number below the A is how many people there is room for on that date)
- Click to select a date, then click on “book permit” to move to the detail page where you fill in the rest of your trip information.

Itinerary / camp locations are approximate, and can be updated before the permit is issued.

Only the leader or alternate leader listed on the reservation will be able to pickup or use the permit. Leaders and alternates cannot be changed or added later.

After reviewing the terms and rules, complete your reservation by checking out the shopping cart.

A week before your trip you should verify your final group size and confirm the reservation. Confirming will hold the reservation until 5pm on your entry date. Log onto your recreation.gov account and look in your list of current reservations. Click the confirm button and complete the instructions. The actual permit will be issued when you arrive to begin your trip. Link to permit issuing instructions.

Unconfirmed reservations will be canceled as a no-show at 10:30am on the trip entry date and the space may be given away to other groups.
